VOL. XXXIV—NO. 4.

WEATHER FACTS.
SPRINGFIELD, O.,
January 5, 1888.

Looks lopsided, may be, but it "gets there just the same." It is lopsided—it sides down your way, too.

BIG THING FOR YOU.

It is thus we wish you a "Happy New Year."

Are you going to reduce?

"Well, hardly ever," but our

HEAVY OVERCOATS ARE.

They'll be just as heavy and as large in size, but smaller in price by one-fifth.

The time of year has come for the "Annual Reduction."

"They all do it." We are going to tell you how The

When does.

We have begun with heavy overcoats, and made a clear cut of 20 per cent. It applies to the highest price as well as the lowest: $27 to $1; the $27 coat will now cost you $21.60, the $1 coat only 80c, and so on, for

EVERY HEAVY OVERCOAT

In the house. They will come right down regularly as that line of letters does. As for us, we increase thus:

DEATH OF AMMI BALDWIN.

Owner of the Fidelity National Bank, from a Stroke of Paralysis, Early This Morning.

Rich Silver Mine in Indiana. Mr. De Witt Talmage Successor as Chaplain—House Committee Announced.

Special to the Republic:
CINCINNATI, Jan. 5.—Ammi Baldwin, late cashier of the Fidelity National bank, died suddenly at 3 o'clock this morning, at his residence, on Walnut hills. Mr. Baldwin was indicted, with other members of the Fidelity bank, but for some reason his bond was placed at ten thousand dollars, and he was able to secure a bondsman, and has not been in jail. He died from the effects of a stroke of paralysis. A year ago he had a slight attack and was obliged to take a rest for some time. On Tuesday night he retired in his usual health, but yesterday morning his family found him lying unconscious. All efforts to arouse him failed. His physician pronounced it a case of paralysis. He never regained consciousness, but died early this morning.
Mr. Baldwin was 58 years old.

House Committee.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—Speaker Carrill has completed his list of assignments to committee service, as follows:

Ways and means committee—Mills, Texas; chairman; McMillan, Tennessee; Brookridge, Arkansas; Brookridge, Kentucky; Turner, Georgia; Wilson, West Virginia; Scott, Pennsylvania; Ryum, Indiana; Kelly, Pennsylvania; Brown, Indiana; Reed, Maine; McKinley, Ohio; Burrows, Michigan.

Committee on appropriations—Randall, Pennsylvania; chairman; Forney, Alabama; Burns, Missouri; Foran, Ohio; Seymour, Texas; Clements, Georgia; Polk, California; New York; Gay, Louisiana; Rice, Minnesota; Cannon, Illinois; Ryan, Kansas; Butterworth, Ohio; Long, Massachusetts; McNulty, Maryland; D. B. Henderson, Iowa; The following are the chairmen of some of the other committees: Banking and currency, Watkins, Ohio; commerce, Clardy, Ohio; foreign affairs, Hatch, Missouri; foreign affairs, Townsend, Illinois; navy affairs, Herbert, Indiana; postoffice and postroads, Belmont, Georgia; public lands, Holman, Indiana; territories, Springle, Illinois; railways and canals, Larison, Florida; manufactures, Baird, New York; Pacific railroad, Cleveland, Ohio; education, Chandler, Georgia; labor, O'Neill, Missouri; invalid pensions, Matson, Indiana; pensions, Biles, New York; civil service, Clements, Georgia; census, Cox, New York; alcoholic liquor traffic, Campbell, Ohio.

Upon the assembling of the house the speaker announced his committees.

The "Tribune" on Senator Sherman's speech.

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—The "Tribune," commenting on Senator Sherman's speech in the senate yesterday, says: As a political difficultly in subjecting to dictatorial control the president's confession of helplessness in dealing with the surplus. He proved that the power of the secretary of the treasury to purchase bonds, was not a pretense nor a debatable supposition, but an unquestionable right. With equal success, as the defender of the American economic system, the senator repelled the attack made in the message upon home industries. His plea in defense of the wool interest, as particularly effective, and his argument in favor of large reductions in internal taxation, equally vigorous. The American duty to home industries, he contended, was greater than the duty to foreign interests.

SILVER IN INDIANA.
Extraordinary Production of Silver and Gold.

JASPER, Ind., Jan. 5.—The Buck Shoals Silver Mining and Smelting company are smelting about twenty tons of silver-bearing rock daily. The product is from sixty tons to seventy-five pounds of silver from each batch of twenty-four hours. An assay of one ton of rock at Newport, Ky., showed a silver product of $69, and $4 in gold. The ledge of rocks is in the bluffs of White river, Dubois county, Indiana.

Chaplain Talmage.
NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—Rev. De Witt Talmage has been chosen chaplain of the fourteenth congress to succeed Rev.
Henry Ward Beecher.

POLICE BENEVOLENT ASSOCIATION.
It was successfully organized yesterday afternoon—Officers Elected.

Yesterday (Wednesday) afternoon an organization known as the Police Benevolent Association of Springfield, Ohio, was formed at a meeting held at police headquarters. It is very similar to like organizations at Dayton, and the constitution and by-laws of the latter were adopted with only trifling changes. Among these are that the benefit sum paid by the association in case of death is $100, and the dues are fifty cents a month.
The association includes all of the police force, the two station-house keepers, the major and all the police court officers.

The following officers were elected for the coming year:

President—Police Judge L. F. Young.
Vice president—Chief of Police James
R. Ambrose.
Secretary—Police Clerk A. C. Morrill.
Financial secretary—Inspector Fred Foster.
Treasurer—His Honor, Mayor O. S.
Kelly.

Death of Bethena Anderson.
Died, Bethena Anderson, on Miami street, Wednesday at noon, January 4, 1888, of complications of diseases, aged 67 years. The funeral services will be held at North Street M. E. church on Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock p. m. Services conducted by Rev. Maxwell, pastor. Will leave the house at 1 o'clock. Interment at Fenwick.
Friends invited.

Mr. A. N. Brooks, of Hamilton & Brooks, grain dealers, has a pencil picture drawn of his house and lot, located seven miles east at the I. B. & W. station of that name. It was made by an old German, who spent just one month on the work and sat out on the railroad track, where he could see it all. The house, barn, elevator, side track, trees, wind-mill, and all the surrounding are perfectly prized, and cost the owner $40.

Mr. W. H. Willis, for many years identified with the dry goods trade of this city, has accepted a position in the store of Mr.
John Wren, on Market street.

An interesting and profitable revival is in progress at the Second Baptist church, under the leadership of the pastor, Rev.
Wilton R. Boone.

IS HE CROOKED?

Mr. J. C. Leslie Arrested on the Charge of Fraudulently Obtaining Goods.

At 4 o'clock yesterday (Wednesday) afternoon Constable Parsons arrested a writing named J. C. Leslie on the charge of writing a letter for the purpose of defrauding.

The arrest was made on a state affidavit served out by Mr. A. J. Thayer, a wooden manufacturer of New York city. The afdavit charges that Mr. Leslie unlawfully obtained possession of nine bolts of woolen goods, worth $110, Leslie was arrested without trouble, and the trial is in progress this afternoon before Judge Brookridge. John L. Zimmerman, esq., represents the plaintiff, and E. S. Wallace represents the defendant. The case has been on long and bitter squabble all day between these attorneys, and the brunt of their variance was that each charged the other with "practicing law in the newspapers"—L. C. keeping his name prominently before the public in the papers by every possible device. So hot did this discussion grow this afternoon that a Republican reporter present had a narrow escape from being subjected to testify in the matter. It was a noble spectacle and was high up in professional ethics.

The prosecution charges that Leslie is a crooked man and habitually gets goods in the manner intimated in the affidavit. Mr.
Zimmerman introduced a number of Leslie's letters heads to show that at different times he represented himself as a dealer in woolen goods, in fish, fruit and game, in oysters, in tobacco and cigars, in fancy goods and in various other lines; that he has been working on the plan which was exposed upon Ed M. Frank and another party, and making a general practice of getting goods without paying for them or having any idea of paying for them and then selling them at any price they would bring, being sure of a profit over the cost price. Some of the goods were represented by Mr. Thayer this morning.

BUCKEYE BANNER.
What the Club Will Carry in the Parade at Columbus.

The events of the last few days in the Ohio senate have made a profound impression on straight republicans throughout the state, and the action of the Buckeye club last night indicates what the republicans of Springfield think of the bolting senators.

The Buckeye club will go to Columbus in force next Monday to demand the insurrection of Governor Foraker, and the club respectively suggests that a banner, on which the following legends shall be inscribed, one on the one side, and the other on the other, be carried in the procession:

WHEN
IN A CAUCUS
STAY THERE!

BUCKEYES ARE STRAIGHT REPUBLICANS!

Such a banner will be sure to appeal strongly to all clear-eyed republicans and will indicate, without doubt, on what sort of platform the club's standards.

CLAIMS ADJUSTED.
The Receiver of the Fidelity National Bank to Compromise the Claims Against Whiteley, Fassler & Kelly and the Champion Machine Company.

The following Associated Press dispatch received from Cincinnati today (Thursday) indicates that the claims of the first Fidelity bank of Cincinnati, against Whiteley, Fassler & Kelly and the Champion Machine company, of this city, have been adjusted:

The big suit of David Armstrong, resulting off the late Fidelity National bank, against Whiteley, Fassler & Kelly, the Champion Machine company, E. L. Harper Co., Swift's Iron and Steel works and the Toronto Bridge and Stove company was settled today by consent or order of the receiver to compromise the claims.
The paper of the Champion Machine company, amounting to $182,347.39 and endorsed by Whiteley, Fassler & Kelly, is paid in full.
The remainder, something over $250,000 of the paper of the other firms named and endorsed by Whiteley, Fassler & Kelly, will be compromised at 50 cents on the dollar, and will be secured by the issuance of $500,000 worth of bonds by Whiteley, Fassler & Kelly, bearing 3 per cent. interest and $100,000 of bonds, springing from the same company, will be paid in full. The Fidelity directors have consented to the settlement, even including Mr. Zimmerman, who is in Europe. The bank will be taken by the receiver, and the paper will be put on the market, and Mr.
Armstrong says the bank will get out very cheaply, and that the receiver will be no difficulty in floating the bonds.

GETTING WARM.
The People at Mechanicburg Do Not Like Senator Cowgill's Action.

A special to the Ohio State Journal from its Mechanicburg correspondent indicates that Senator Cowgill's own county republicans do not endorse his action. The special is as follows:

"Your correspondent has interviewed many of our leading citizens upon the action of the republican senators in bolting the nomination made by the caucus. They are very indignant. Senator Cowgill's action comes in for much condemnation. A few citizens are reserved in their opinion about him, but many others express deep indignation at his action in having led the deserters and the democratic wing in the senate, thus breaking the caucus decree and allowing a democratic clerk to be elected. All think the action of the senators' relief is a part of one that will ultimately redound to anything but good results."

Union Meetings.
There was a good congregation at the High Street M. E. church last evening at the special services. The opening prayer was made by Rev. F. G. Mitchell. Prof.
Adrich led the singing, which was spirited and appropriate. Dr. Falconer preached an excellent sermon, after which an inquiry meeting was held in the lecture room. The services this evening will be held at the Second Presbyterian church, and sermon will be preached by Rev. Mr. Dunlap, of the Congregational church. The Buckeye club is extending among the churches, and a deep desire is manifested for a serious outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon our city.
The following officers were elected for the coming year:

President—Police Judge L. F. Young.
Vice president—Chief of Police James
R. Ambrose.
Secretary—Police Clerk A. C. Morrill.
Financial secretary—Inspector Fred Foster.
Treasurer—His Honor, Mayor O. S.

CENSURING COWGILL.

The Buckeye Club Sits Down Hard on the Honorable Senator from This District.

One of the Best Meetings in the History of the Club—The Gymnasium Reopened for Three Years—Interesting Details.

The regular meeting of the Buckeye club last (Wednesday) evening was more largely attended than any meeting has been since the campaign.

Mr. B. F. K. Jennings occupied the chair and swung the gavel in his usual dignified manner, while Secretary J. J. Snider attended to the duties at his desk.

The following gentlemen, properly endowed, made application for membership:
Dr. W. W. Moore, H. T. Reese, J. J. Garrison, S. T. Irvin, Columbus, Ohio, for the benefit of Capt. J. G. Kenner, G. K. Elliott, A. C. Gordon, Mike Bauroth, James R. Russell, L. S. Giden.

The applications of these gentlemen were referred to a special committee consisting of E. C. Rhonemus, Timothy Liddy and Richard Taylor, and in about fifteen minutes the committee reported in favor of admitting all the applicants. On motion they were then elected by acclamation to full membership.

After the call of committees Captain J.
C. Holloway, of the committee on railroads, made a statement of the rates which had been secured from the I. B. & W. road to Columbus, next Monday, for the benefit of the Buckeye club excursion to
